The Smart
Solution

With knowledge, experience and proven success, Freight Mart International has the solution to your national and international freight requirements.

Our mission is to consistently exceed your expectations by providing smart end to end logistics solutions, add value to your business and upholding our ethos every day to be the best customer service provider.

In a world that is fast paced, demanding and ever changing, it makes sense to partner with a global freight forwarding and third party logistics expert who can provide a modern solution backed up with good old fashioned personal service and support.

Freight Mart International, an industry leader in national and international ocean & air freight, has the worldly knowledge, market intelligence and street smarts to deliver the right import & export freight solution for your business.

If you are frustrated with a lack of understanding of your business requirements or your freight partner not delivering on promises, then its time to think a little differently....

Think... Freight Mart International

What's old is new again. Global reach with personalised service.

With knowledge, experience and proven success, Freight Mart International has the solution to your national and international freight requirements.

Freight Mart International provides a fully national solution with complete coverage of the Australian market, an office in Malaysia and a well established network of global partners. Freight Mart International has the right connections, in the right places to get the right result.

Our value to you.

We provide prompt and reliable response times to enquiries.

Dedicated Client Services representatives who are available to offer operational support or assist with any enquiry from logistics to accounting.

Integrated in-house services, logistics, customs brokerage, transport and warehousing, delivering efficiency across the entire supply chain.

Think Tank

Our business is innovative, but it's our people who help make our business what it is today.

When it comes to international freight, it's important to understand the nuances of each country and the unique documentation requirements.

The importance of understanding the range of requirements for foreign government bodies and the demands of Australian Quarantine and Customs authorities should never be underestimated.

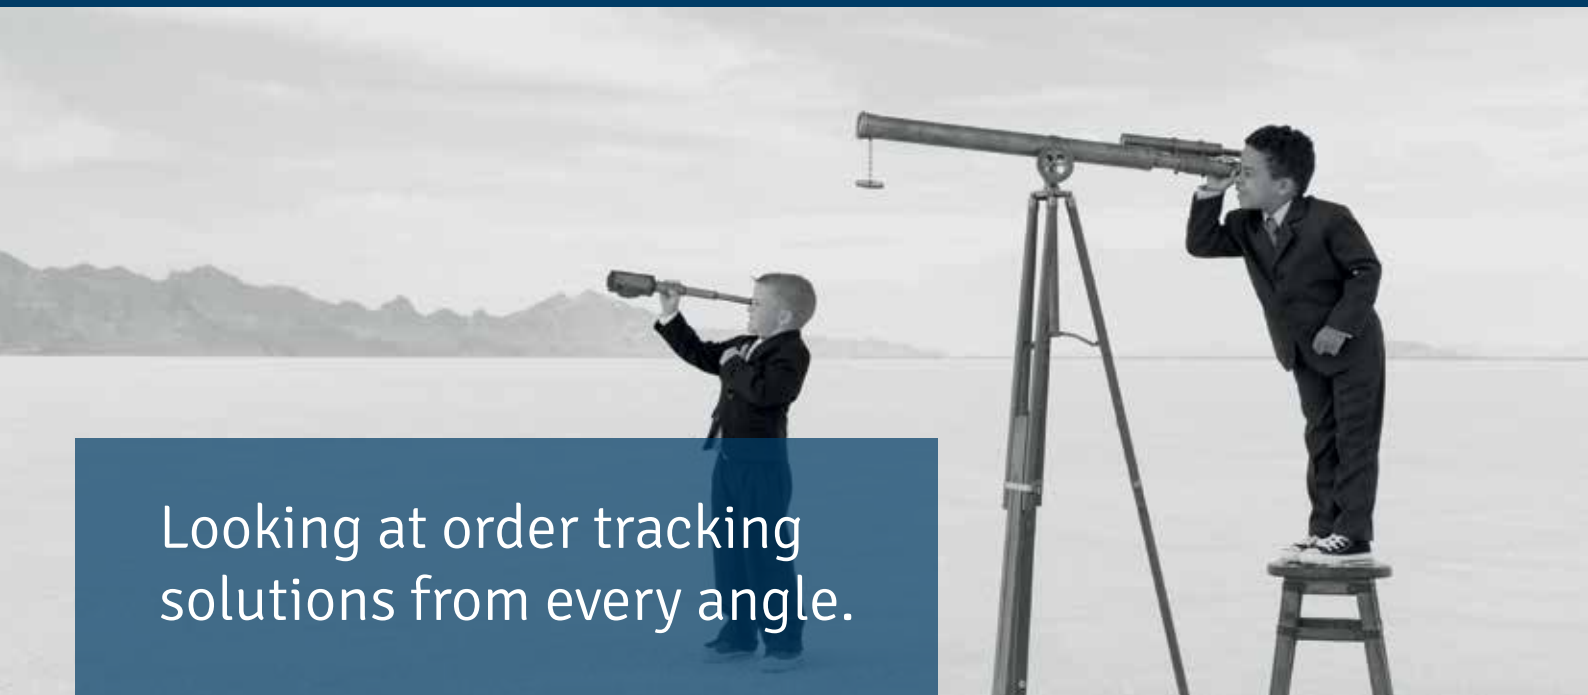

The Freight Mart International team understand what you need and how we can best deliver the desired outcome, efficiently and effectively.

Now that's clever thinking.
